The Less Fortunate

THE HARDER
YOU WORK
FOR SOMETHING,
THE GREATER
YOU'LL FEEL
WHEN YOU ACHIEVE IT.

Write the text to a speech to be given to school children about how they can help those who are less fortunate than themselves.

What information is here that we need?

Task 5 – Your introduction

- What key techniques do you want to show off straight away?
- Young people! Do you have a roof over your head? Do you have enough food to eat? Do you have the support you need? Many people in our community today do not face the luxuries we have. We need to do all we can to support those less fortunate – you never know, this could be you one day.
- Young people! We are one community. We should be aware of the misfortunates faced by many in our own society. We need to come together to provide the support for those less fortunate than ourselves. It is our responsibility to help.

Sign – posting your answer

- Have a clear topic sentence at the start and end of each paragraph.
- One way we can help is by volunteering at soup kitchens.
- We should look at donating items which we no longer want to those less fortunate.
- Finally, a key way of supporting could be to hold a fund-raiser.
- Make it clear to the examiner what the focus of that paragraph will be.
